St Martin's News

Our Young Voices choir have been attending an after-school singing club since September, learning songs and dance routines. Yesterday, they performed at Co-op Live alongside over 7,000 children from schools across the country!

They also had the exciting opportunity to perform with Manchester singer Alex Spencer, who once took part in Young Voices himself. As Young Voices celebrates its 30th anniversary, our children were a real credit to the school — earning fantastic feedback and even being interviewed by the Young Voices film crew. What an amazing experience!
